

I am very upset at the possibility that the present setup whereby there are limitations on the ownership of various forms of media in an area will be changed.. It is a limitation which is essential to the preservation of democracy..Retain our right tohear diverse voices, do not change the FCC rules.....